The dog was quite surprised as he saw his own reflection in the river. The dog and the bone He mistook it for another dog with a juicy bone in its mouth.

AFTER A BATH(POEM)

After my bath I try, try, try to wipe myself till I am dry, dry, dry.

Hands to wipe and fingers and toes
and two wet legs and a shiny nose.

Just think how much less time I'd take
if I were a dog and could shake, shake, shake.

SUMMARY(POEM)

The poet is a little child who tries hard to dry every little part of his body after a bath.

The poet feels his work
would have been much easier if he were a dog,
as it only shakes itself to dry itself.
