STUDY MATERIAL AND SAMPLE PAPER

Topic : Good Habits

- Good habits make a person happy and healthy.
- Good habits make a good person
- Children with good manners will be loved by all

Brush Your Teeth Twice Every Day

A day begins and ends with dental hygiene. Brushing your teeth after waking up in the morning and before going to bed is a good habit. It maintains your dental hygiene. Your teeth and mouth will remain healthy.

Bath Every Day

Taking a bath every day is mandatory. Children love to play and ignore dirt. Dirt can cause skin problems and can even make a child sick. This is why bathing every day is a good habit. Using soap and shampoo is essential to learn. Make bathing fun with toys so that kids can pick up this good habit.

Eating a Healthy Breakfast

Eating good food at the beginning of a day is mandatory. A routine should be followed for breakfast. It will set the children's appetite as per the clock and will help prevent chronic diseases.

Washing Hands

Washing hands is crucial after playing and eating food. Clean hands are good for a child's health. They will not pick up infectious diseases. They should learn how to wash hands with liquid soap for 20 seconds.

Physical Activities

This is one of the most important points on a list of good habits. Daily physical exercise is mandatory for physical and mental development. A kid who sweats in the field is healthier than the one who spends most of his time at home.
